QRI SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS 2020

General Information

The QRI Scholarship Awards offer $20,000 worth of grants to QRI Members or their children who demonstrate outstanding achievement in the categories of Academia, the Arts and Sports.

APPLICATIONS OPEN ON 2ND MARCH AND CLOSE AT 4PM, 26TH JUNE 2020

4 x $2,000 Major Academic Scholarships

The Major Academic award will be presented to the recipient in recognition of their previous outstanding academic achievements, clearly defined future academic goals, and aspirations to continue in their line of study. This award is designed to help offset future academic expenses including tuition, educational equipment etc. This scholarship award is open to applicants who have completed Year 12 (or equivalent) and have an OP/equivalent score. Applicants for the Major Award must be currently enrolled at University, TAFE or equivalent recognised academic institution. Applicants can be QRI full-fee paying members (aged 18+) OR the child of a full-fee paying member from age 17 to 25 inclusive.

4 x $1,000 Minor Academic Scholarships

The Minor Academic award will be presented to the recipient in recognition of previous outstanding academic achievements, future academic goals and aspirations to continue in their line of study. This will help offset future academic expenses including tuition, educational equipment etc. This scholarship prize is open to applicants aged between 11 (Year 7) and 18 inclusive (up to and including year 12 of secondary school or TAFE equivalent). Applicants for the Minor Award must be the child of a QRI full-fee paying member.

4 x $1,000 Sporting Scholarships

The Sporting Scholarship award will be presented to recognise outstanding achievement in sports, such as Queensland and/or Australian representation.

Applicants can be QRI full-fee paying members (aged 18+) OR the child of a full-fee paying member from age 5 to 25 inclusive.

2 x $1,000 Arts Scholarships

The Arts Scholarship award will be presented to acknowledge those who have had continued outstanding achievement in the fields of visual and/or the performing arts.

Applicants can be QRI full-fee paying members (aged 18+) OR the child of a full-fee paying member from age 5 to 25 inclusive.

4 x $500 Encouragement Awards

Winners of this award will be selected from entrants in any of the above Scholarship categories.

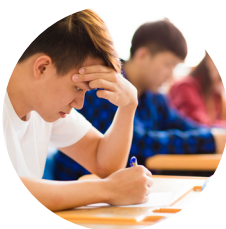

The Encouragement award is designed to encourage those who have shown potential in any of the above categories.

Judging

A panel of judges from the QRI State Management Committee select the successful applications. The judges look for the following criteria: personal statement addressing each question in a logical flow highlighting their past achievements, future goals, display passion in their chosen category, extracurricular activities and supporting statements from referees.

The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into. All applicants will be notified of the judges' decision in writing.

Disbursement of Scholarship Awards

The Major Academic Scholarship is aimed at helping to offset costs associated with educational expenses and as such may not be paid in a cash lump sum but rather be paid direct to educational providers, or towards educational equipment such as laptops, computers, printers and text books. The Minor Academic Scholarship, Sporting Scholarship, Arts Scholarship, and Encouragement Awards will be presented to the winners in the form of a cheque payment.

For more information please refer to the QRI Scholarship Fund terms and conditions.

F) 4 x $500 encouragement awards which will be selected from entries not successful in the above categories.

6.3 The winners of the Major Academic scholarship agree to liaise with QRI lifestyle, on an annual basis for two (2) years following the receipt of their award, to provide a progress statement of their studies and career progression. The written material provided by the winners of the major academic scholarship category may be published in QRI's marketing collateral, and used in conjunction with future scholarship awards and presentation events.

6.4 The winners and award recipients of all categories and their companions agree to participate and co-operate as required in all editorial activities relating to the competition, including but not limited to being interviewed and photographed.

6.5 The winners and their companions grant the promoters a perpetual and non-exclusive licence to use such footage and photographs in all media worldwide and the winner and his or her companions will not be entitled to any fee for such use of footage and photographs.

6.5 Prizes are non-transferable and the promoter reserves the right to provide the prize in form of payment for expenses related to the scholarship rather than cash.

6.6 The distribution of the 18 available prizes will be at the discretion of the judging panel, pending the quality of the applications and entries received by the due date.

6.7 The judging panel reserves the right to amend or adjust the number of prizes per category depending on the circumstances.

7. Determination and notification of winner

7.1 All entries completed and submitted in accordance with these terms and conditions will be judged by the appointed judging panel during the months of July/August 2020.

7.2 There is no element of chance in the judging of the promotion or determination of the winners.

7.3 The winners will be notified by telephone and letter.

7.4 The judges' decision is final and the promoter and judges will not enter into correspondence regarding the result.

7.5 The promoter reserves the right to refuse to allow the winner to take part in any or all aspects of the prize, if the promoters determine, in their absolute discretion, that the winner is not in the mental or physical condition necessary to be able to safely participate in the prize.

7.6 It is a condition of accepting the prize that the winner's parent or guardian may be required to sign a legal release in a form determined by the promoters in their absolute discretion.

8. No liability

8.1 The promoter, their related bodies corporate and associated agencies and companies associated with this promotion take no responsibility for late, lost or misdirected mail.

8.2 The promoter, their related bodies corporate and their associated agencies and companies associated with this promotion will not be liable for any misadventure, accident, injury, loss or claim that may occur:

(A) whilst undertaking any travel won on or connected with their entry into the promotion; or

(B) in the participation in any prize; or

(C) as a consequence of late, lost or misdirected mail; or

(D) Due to the broadcast of any program relating to the competition or the publication of any material, including any statements made by any compere, staff member, journalist, other entrants or any other person; or

(E) Due to circumstances outside the reasonable control of the promoters, their related bodies corporate and their associated agencies and companies associated with this promotion; or

(F) In relation to failure of an online entry to be received by the promoters on account of technical problems or traffic congestion; or

(G) Due to circumstances beyond the promoter's reasonable control.

8.3 In the case of the intervention of any outside act, agent or event which prevents or significantly hinders the promoter's ability to proceed with the competition on the dates and in the manner described in these terms and conditions, including but not limited to vandalism, power failures, tempests, natural disasters, acts of god, civil unrest, strike, war, an act of terrorism, the promoter may in their absolute discretion cancel the event and recommence it from the start on the same conditions or such reasonable conditions providing for any unforeseen contingency.

8.4 The promoter reserves the right to amend or vary these terms and conditions at its sole discretion, orally or in writing, for the purpose of production requirements.

8.5 The promoter assumes no responsibility for any error, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, delay in operation or transmission, communications line failure, theft or destruction or unauthorised access to, or alteration of entries, and reserves the right to take any action that may be available.

8.6 If for any reason this competition is not capable of running as planned, including due to infection by computer virus, bugs, tampering, unauthorised intervention, fraud, technical failures or any causes beyond the control of the promoter, which corrupt or affect the administration, security, fairness or integrity or proper conduct of this promotion, the promoter reserves the right in its sole discretion to disqualify any individual who tampers with the entry process, take any action that may be available, and to cancel, terminate, modify or suspend the competition, subject to any written direction given under state regulation.

8.7 Prize winners may be required to seek independent legal advice as tax implications may arise through acceptance of the prize.

9. Privacy

9.1 All entries become the property of the promoter.

9.2 All entries will be entered into a database and the promoter may use the applicant's and QRI member's names, details on their application and images for future promotional, marketing and publicity purposes in any media worldwide without notice and without any fee being paid, unless otherwise advised by the applicant.

9.3 By entering the promotion, applicants and QRI members confirm that they allow their details to be used for this purpose. If entrants do not consent to their details being used for future marketing purposes, the entrant should contact the promoter on their details set out above. Any request to update, modify or delete the entrant's details should be directed to the promoter.
